And will in itself be a full consideration for the price charged for Admission Tickets,.

The distribution of Gifts will take place immediately after the Concert, on the vast stage of the Opera House, and in full view of the audience, under the immediate supervision of the President and Directors of the VUE DE L'EAU COMPANY, and the following distinguished gentlemen, who have kindly consented to be present and see that the gifts are properly distributed as advertised:—

Hon John R Ludlow, Mayor of Norfolk,
Hon A S Watts, Mayor of Portsmouth,
Col Walter H Taylor, of Norfolk,
Hon John B Whitehead, Ex-Mayor of Norfolk,
James G Holladay, Esq., of Portmouth.

The board of Directors is composed of the following gentlemen, whose well known character for integrity, honor, and public enterprise are so well known as to guarantee success, and a fair and impartial distribution of the gifts:—

Major George W Grice, President Bank of Portsmouth,
Col William Lamb, President First National Bank, Norfolk,
Gen V D Groner, General Agent Boston Steamship Company,
Captain Nathaniel Burruss, Son & Co., Washington Reed, Esq., of Peters & Reed Merchants,
E G Gulo, Esq., Superintendent Seaboard and Roanoke Railroad,
Robert J Neely, Esq., of R J & W Neely & Co,
Marshall Parks, Esq., President Albemarle & Chesapeake Canal Company,
E C Lindsey Esq., Real Estate Broker,
William A White, Esq., Attorney at Law, Norfolk.

The distribution will be by blindfolded persons or children, from two wheels, one of which will contain gifts on printed slips sealed in envelopes of the same size, the other will contain tags, with numbers on them corresponding with all the tickets sold; after the contents of both wheels are thoroughly mixed by revolving, the person at the first wheel will take a number therefrom, and then the person at the second wheel will take a gift therefrom, and the gift thus taken will belong to the number taken immediately before it,—this process will continue—the numbers and gifts being publicly announced—until the whole four hundred and and one gifts are distributed. Thus the public will readily see there can be no fraud, collusion, or knowledge of what gift any number will get.

Should the tickets be not all sold when the concert comes off, the presents will be distributed in proportion to the number sold.

It is hoped the public will promptly respond to this effort to establish upon a firm basis a delightful resort during the heated months.

TICKETS ONLY $5 EACH.

Currency Gifts will be paid in cash at our banking House in the city of Norfolk, on presentation of the tickets entitled thereto, without discount.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

"Oxford items" to-morrow.

Locals necessarily crowded out to day by more important matter.

A good sewing machine is for sale at Messrs. E. W. Thomason & Co.'s.

C. B. Green, editor of the Durham Tobacco Plant, gave us a call yesterday.

The Grand Lodge of Masons will probably remain in session till Friday night.

A little boy bit by Wynne, Yancey & Co's bull dog several days since, near the stable, has since died of his wounds.

Our old friend F. G. King, on Wilmington street has realized from a ten months' old pig 254 lbs. of pork nett. Who can out pork this.

Mr. Young, of the firm of Plummer, Young & Co., Petersburg, Va., the largest wholesale hardware dealers south of New York, is in the city.

Katie Putnam improves on acquaintance. Her representation of East Lynne last night was an unparalleled success. Go and see her to-night.

We are pleased to learn from Dr. E. B Haywood that the condition of Sheriff Helen, of Pitt county, who was injured by a fall at the Yarborough House Monday morning, is improving.

The editors of the NEWS, "especially Woodson," are under lasting obligations to James Y. Whitted, Esq, of Hillsboro, manufacturer of the celebrated bright plug and twist tobacco, for a specimen box of his best. From the high reputation attained by Mr. Whitted for his various brands, it is unnecessary to state that it is as good as any we ever used.

Norfolk and Lynnhaven oysters in the shell can always be found at Nicholas John's, Fayettville street, and will be cooked in any manner desired. Families will be supplied in any quantity, either cooked according to order or in the shell. Imported liquor and cigars, the best to be had, can also be found at his establishment.

THE ELECTORAL COLLEGE.—The Electors for President and Vice-President of the United States, elected at the recent election in North Carolina, met in this city on Tuesday. Hon. S F. Phillips having accepted the office of Solicitor General of the Treasury since the election, tendered his resignation as an Elector for the State at large, when James H. Harris was elected to fill the vacancy.

The College met in the Senate Chamber at 12 o'clock, M., on Wednesday, and cast the vote of North Carolina for Grant and Wilson.

J. B. Neathery, Esq, of this city, was appointed Secretary to the College, and W. B. Glenn, Esq., of Yadkin county, was selected as messenger to convey the vote to Washington.

THE GRAND LODGE OF MASONS.—The present Grand Lodge of North Carolina is the largest and most intelligent body of its character ever before assembled in the State, and decidedly the most dignified body of law makers now in the city. We were present yesterday during the discussion on the question of non-affiliation and heard a most powerful and argumentative speech from Past Grand Master, C. C. Clark in favor of recognizing non affiliation as a Masonic crime. At the hour our report closed no vote had been taken on the resolution.

A HANDSOME AFGHAN.—In the published premium list of the late fair at Weldon, the Secretary omitted to mention that the first premium was awarded to Mrs. W. F. Davis, of Kittrells, for an embroidered afghan. It was one of the most handsome things of the kind we have ever seen, and attracted universal attention.

NOTICE.—An adjourned meeting of the Oak City Building and Loan Association will be held to night at Rescue Hall. Money to loan. See notice.

SUPPRESSIO VERI.—In an editorial in to-day's paper we allude to the position taken by Senator Love in the caucus of Tuesday, which re nominated Gov. Vance. Since that editorial was written, we have obtained the substance of the remarks made by Senator Love, which we publish below, as we do not wish to do that gentleman any injustice. If we have reported him incorrectly, we will cheerfully make the amende honorable. He said:

"That he was very thankful to the caucus for indulging him so often, and that he would ask the Conservative members to indulge him once more.—That he knew no friend when he came here, save Judge Merrimon, and that he had stood by him, because he believed him to be the right man for this position. That he had been convinced all the time that a coalition existed between Gov. Vance and Gen. Ransom, by which they were to carry the position of Senator in their pockets But, that now, he believed this coalition had been broken up, and felt prond to say that he had been active in breaking it up. That he had crushed the monster! And that Gov. Vance had now gone home! That he had always been in favor of removing all political disabilities and proscriptions, and that now he was in favor of throwing open the doors and allowing the names of all North Carolinians to come before this caucus, and that the choice of this caucus ought to prevail."

UNITED STATES CIRCUIT COURT—Geo. W Brooks presiding—Wednesday, Dec. 4, 1872.

Court met at 10 o'clock.

In the case of A. G. Swasey and others against the North Carolina Rail Road Company and others, on the Equity docket, an order was made for the distribution of the fund to the bondholders, in the hands of the Receiver.

William Weinstein against G. W Capell, was called and argued. Battle & Sons for plaintiff; Smith & Strong for defendant. Verdict by the jury for the defendant.

The case of the United States against Lee Dunlop was called and its consideration postponed owing to the absence of Judge Fowle, who it is understood will be in court in the morning.

D. G. McRae and J. W. Hinsdale assignees, against N. McKay McNeill.—Jury found a verdict for the plaintiffs, and assessed the damage at $73 06, of which $44 03 is principal.

The case of United States against W. E. Phipher and others, was, on application of Mr. Battle, removed to Greensboro.

G. H Reese & Bro., against George Dixon, heretofore tried, was called.

THE VUE DE L'EAU GRAND GIFT CONCERT.—We understand that the sale of tickets for the Gift Concert wil be closed on Monday the 16th inst. It is a scheme that commends itself to our citizens, as it is conducted by gentlemen of the highest responsibility, thus giving to the public assurance that everything connected therewith will be fairly and honorably managed. As the proceeds go to improve and beautify this delightful Virginia summer resort, it is hoped that it will meet with the success it so nobly deserves. See the advertisement elsewhere.

A FINE PAIR OF HORSES FOR SALE.—We invite attention to an announcement elsewhere of a fine pair of horses for sale by Mr. J. S. Grant, of Northampton county. We have had the pleasure of riding behind these animals, and for both beauty of style and speed they claim much merit.

A NEW STORE.—Mr. S. D. Waitt is now receiving a large stock of dry goods, clothing, shoes, etc., and will open by Monday next in the store lately occupied by L L vy, 54 Fayetteville street. Look out for his advertisement.

A large Assortment latest styles just to hand. L. BRANSON,

THE NORTH CAROLINA LEGISLATURE.

FIFTEENTH DAY.

FRIDAY, Dec. 4, '72.

SENATE.

Senate called to order at 11 o'clock, a. m., President Morehead in the chair.

Journal of yesterday read and approved.

Mr. Love rose to a question of privilege, in regard to an editorial article in the DAILY NEWS of this morning respecting the Senatorial election. [Notice of this will be found elsewhere.]

Reports from standing committees were submitted by Messrs. Murray, Merrimon, Seymour, McCauley and Todd.

Mr. Murphy stated that he had not taken the leave of absence granted him yesterday.

Petitions.

Mr. Humphrey presented a petition from citizens of Mount Olive asking an amendment of the charter of that town.

Introduction of Bills and Resolutions.

Mr. Grandy—A bill to incorporate the New York, Norfolk and Charleston Railway Company. Referred.

Mr. Grandy—A bill to incorporate the North Carolina Construction Company.

Mr. Flemming—A bill to prescribe the duties of the Judges of the Superior Courts.

Harris, col., A bill to incorporate the bank of Raleigh, reviving an act of 1870 The incorporators are now ready to open the business of the said bank.

Rules suspended and bill passed second reading, when it was referred to Committee on Corporations.

Mr. Ellis, of Catawba, a bill to authorize the Carolina Narrow Guage Railroad Company to consolidate with the Chester and Lenoir Narrow Guage Railroad Company in South Carolina. Referred.

Mr. Powell moved a suspension of the rules to take up a bill defining the duties of certain Judges; motion adopted, and bill made order of the day Wednesday next at 11½ o'clock.

Mr. Cunningham moved that the use of the Hall be granted to the Presidential Electors at 12 o'clock M. Granted.

Mr. Waring asked a suspension of the rules to take up the bill relative to Venue, and that the same be referred to Committee on Judge Battle's Report.

Mr. Murray, a bill to prevent the felling of trees on Haw River and its tributaries. Referred.

The bill for the payment of Sheriffs for holding the late Presidential election, was called up, and referred to the committee on Propositions and Grievances.

House resolution for the relief of John J. Hastes, of Union county, that the same be relieved of certain fines incurred in 1871-'72. Referred.

The resolution in favor of "certain" Sheriffs called up by Mr. Merrimon.—Committee recommend the passage of the bill.

Mr. Merriman favored the resolution.

Mr. Waring offered an amendment, that no Sheriff shall be allowed pay for any guard in transmitting the convicts

Mr. Allen opposed the amendment, as it would be manifest injustice to the Sheriffs.

Mr. Waring wanted the guard paid by the counties.

Mr. Flemming thought the amendment looked in the right direction, the limiting of the guard, but he did not think the Sheriffs should have to look to the counties for pay. He would vote to allow one guard to each convict.

Mr. Love wanted to pay all such claims held against the State, and he would then co operate with the other gentlemen in enacting a law for the future government of this matter.

Mr. Worth opposed the bill, as the door of fraud would be opened, and the State Treasury would suffer thereby.

Mr. Seymour favored the original resolution but offered the amendment.

Pending this resolution, the Chair announced the hour for the two Houses to go into joint session to receive the report of the committee upon the returns of the August election, proceedings of which will be found in the House report.

Leave of absence was granted Mr. McCabe for 4 days.

Senate adjourned until to-morrow at 11 o'clock.

Reports from Committees.

The committee on Corporations are requested to meet in the Senate Chamber this morning at 9 o'clock, for the consideration of important matters referred to said committee.

W. P. WELCH, chairman.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

House called to order at 10 o'clock. Speaker Robinson in the chair.

Journal of yesterday read and approved.

Several reports from chairmen of standing committees were rendered as follows: Messrs. Stanford, Brown, of Davidson, Morrison, Johnston and Moring.

Introduction of Resolutions.

By Mr. Blythe, a resolution in regard to public printing, instructing the committee to let out the work to the lowest (responsible) bidder.

By Mr. Johnston, a resolution in favor of the sureties of Jessie Summer, Sheriff Buncombe for the year 1868.

By Mr. Perry, of Bladen, a resolution in regard to adjournment, that the General Assembly, Senate concurring, adjourn Saturday the 21st of December, to January 6th.

By Mr. Bean, a resolution in regard to the two asylums and the State Penitentiary. Placed on the calendar.

Introduction of Bills.

By Mr. Bowman, a bill to carry into effect chapter 36, laws of 1868 '69. Referred to committee on Corporations.

By Mr. Bean, a bill to repeal section 19, 28 and 25, chapter 389, laws 1871 and 1872. Referred to committee on Education.

Mr Godfrey—A bill to incorporate the Security Express Company.

By M. Trivett—A bill to prevent speculation in county claims, and to require purchasers to make affidavit of the cost of the same.

By Mr. Godfrey—to incorporate the Southern Telegraph Company.

By Mr. Johnson—A bill to repeal chapter 27, laws of 1870-'71, in relation to the sale of spirituous liquors in the town of Asheville.

Calendar.

House bill No. 28, to authorize the Commissioners of Watauga county to levy a special tax. Bill passed.

House bill No. 30, to incorporate the Scuppernong Steamboat Tranportation Company. Passed its second and third readings.

House bill No. 23, to incorporate the North Carolina Medical Society.

Mr. Jones, of Caldwell, Chairman of the Committee on Corporations to whom the bill was referred, offered an amendment to the bill as follows: Strike out in sec. 5, all after the word Corporation in line 21, stating as his reason therefore, That the bill conferred extraordinary powers in that it allows a capital stock of half milliion, and prevents the contraction of a debt for more than $10.000, thereby virtually giving the corporation a homestead of $490 000. Soulless corporations are becoming the bane of our country, and if we make them by law irresponsible as well as unfeeling, not only its creditors, but the community at large must be sufferers. The amendment proposes to strike out that part of the bill conferring this privilege, and Mr. J. hoped it would be adopted.

The bill with amendment passed its second reading, and placed upon the Calendar for its third reading.

House resolution, asking our Representatives in Congress to use their influence to have the Sheriffs of the several counties in the State to collect Internal Revenue due in their counties. Passed Senate bill for the relief of D. J. Clark, former Sheriff of Bladen. The bill provides for a credit of $1,000 by the State to Sheriff Clark, who lost $3,000 by the robbery of a safe in Elizabeth, where his funds were kept.

Mr. Norment bought the bill one of merit, tha Sheriff Clark had done all in his power to keep the public funds safe, that no banks were convenient, and he did what he thought his duty when he placed his funds for safe keeping in the safe of a respectable and responsible merchant in Elizabeth, who lost as well as Sheriff Clark a large sum of money.

Mr. Perry, of Bladen, knew the party well, and knew him to be a gentleman of high character.

Joint Assembly.

The joint assembly met in the Hall of Representatives at 12 o'clock.

The Speaker stated that the joint assembly to examine the vote of August last for the Executive and other State officers having been postponed to this day on account of there being no returns from the counties of Gates, Jones, Watauga, New Hanover and Macon, he would state that as yet, the counties of Gates, Watauga and Macon had not been heard from.

Mr. McGehee, from the committee to examine the returns from the various counties, and report defects, &c., with opinion of the committee as to how the joint assembly should act, &c., submitted a lengthy report, which was read by the clerk, and on motion Mr. Welch was adopted. Reading the adoption of the report, a considerable discussion arose as to what effect the adoption of the resolution would have upon the result of the election. The Republicans were evidently uneasy that some of the fraudulently elected officials would be ousted from their ill-gotton positions.

Mr McGehee said the thought of a change in the election result never once entered the head of the Committee.

Mr. Murphy moved for and advocated the printing of the report.

Mr. Seymour offered the following resolution, that the clerk of the House be instructed to add up the returns so far received and in his hands, in accordance with the principles adopted by this Joint Assembly.

An amendment was offered by Mr. Heaton to require the work to be done by the 10th of January.

Mr. Johnston, from the committee to wait on Judge Merrimon and inform him of his election to the United States Senate by the Legislature of North Carolina, reported that the committee had performed its duty and received from Judge Merrimon his acceptance of the position.

Joint session adjourned till 12 o'clock M., 10th Dec.

House adjourned to meet at 10 o'clock to-morrow morning.

MR. LOVE RISES TO EXPLAIN.

Mr. Love, Senator from Jackson, in the Senate yesterday, rising to a question of privilege, said:

"Mr. President: The Editor of the NEWS comes to us, growling over the result of the Senatorial contest. I have expected, knowing some of the stock holders in that concern, that the NEWS would be sore and ill, if Gov. Vance was defeated. My expectations, and I may say, my apprehensions, have been realized. Within the last eight or ten days, I have heard the whip of his party lash, but he lacked the nerve to crack it boldly over the "few Conservatives" who stood unwaveringly by Judge Merrimon.

The Editor of the NEWS "feels it his duty to inform the public" that the name of Gov. Vance, was brought forward after his withdrawal, by some of Judge Merrimon's friends, but he does not feel this necessity, or see the justice of adding, that some of Gov. Vance's friends favored this purpose before it was executed.

The editor farther says, that on Monday, Gov. Vance's friends refused to allow his name to go before the caucus, but he does not, in fairness add, that some of Judge Merrimon's friends opposed it too, and with vehemence.

Next, the editor of the NEWS says, that in caucus yesterday morning, some of Merrimon's friends again renewed the proposition to bring Gov. Vance's name before the caucus, and made speeches in favor of Gov. Vance's nomination, that they, (M's friends) urged Vance's claims, and succeeded in having him, (Vance,) re nominated. But he does not add, as simple justice requires, that this proposition was hailed with rapturous applause by Gov. Vance's friends, and resisted by some of Judge Merrimon's friends, This is what I call suppressio veri.

The editor says sixty-seven men pledged themselves to support Gov. Vance. I suppose this pledge was kept, as Gov. Vance got thirteen votes more than those promised. If any Merrimon man gave such pledge, I have no doubt he kept it, as they are all gentlemen, the NEWS to the contrary notwithstanding. The NEWS ought to know, that a motion made in caucus, to make Gov. Vance's nomination unanimous, was withdrawn at the suggestion of one of Judge Merrimon's constant supporters, admitting thereby, a minority of the caucus as still fixed for Judge Merrimon.

Now, Mr. President, the Conservatives who supported Judge Merrimon are Conservatives yet. We protest against wholesale journalistic criticism. We who voted for Judge Merrimon are answerable, first to our constituents and then to the public. The strictures of journalists will be met and repelled when false or unfair. We owe adhesion to principle and not to men."

We publish the above remarks of Senator Love in full, as we desire the public to know all the facts connected with the Senatorial election. The people of North Carolina are entitled to know these facts and we are desirous of giving them all the information on the subject in our power.

The statements in the NEWS of which Mr. Love complains were obtained from members of the caucus. We were not present and therefore gave the information on the authority of others. But our informants are gentlemen of high character and irreproachable veracity.

Our object in writing the editorial referred to was to give the reason of Governor Vance's name being again brought forward after his positive withdrawal. It would be placing him and his friends in a false position to allow the record to go out without an explanation.

We are assured by many of Gov. Vance's friends that his name would not have been again mentioned in caucus but for the zealous efforts in his behalf by some of those who had persistently voted for Judge Merrimon, in all the ballotings in joint assembly.

Gov. Vance was re-nominated with the assurance that enough of the Merrimon men to secure his election had pledged themselves either to vote for him if he was again the nominee, or not again offer any opposition to his election.

The suppressions to which Mr. Love refers of, course we know nothing of, as we were not present, but we do not see how they materially vary these facts, which it was our only purpose in writing the article to establish: that Gov. Vance's withdrawal was in good faith, that his name was urged for re nomination by those who had been constantly voting against him, and that his friends allowed his name to be brought forward the second time, under impression derived from the statements of some of Merrimon's friends in caucus, that they would interpose no farther objection if he was re-nominated.

We have no desire to suppress anything. On the other hand, we ask in the name of the Conservative party, for the full particulars of Gov. Vance's re-romination and defeat.

Inasmuch as we have published an article of which the Senator from Jackson makes complaint, in justice to that gentleman and the others who took part in the caucus of Tuesday, we would like to make public all the material proceedings of that caucus.

We have heard that Mr. Love himself made a speech on that occasion, in which he stated that having accomplished his object in breaking down a combination or coalition, he was willing that the name of any Conservative should be put in nomination, that he was then prepared to support any individual whom the caucus might nominate.

We do not know whether this is true or not, but we know that Gov. Vance's friends expressed great surprise when Mr. Love arose in the Legislature, and put in nomination Judge Merrimon against Vance, as they were led to believe from Mr. Love's remarks in caucus that he would not farther oppose Vance, but would abide the decision of the caucus.

So far as Mr Love's remarks about the NEWS are concerned, we will sympathy state they are entirely gratuitous and harmless. We have personal friends among those who have departed from party organization on the Senatorial question. We think they have committed a very grave error. But we have studiously avoided saying anything to wound their feelings or to do them the slightest injustice. We very much regret their conduct, but we have not assailed them.

In advising them to stand by party organization is cracking the "party lash" over their heads, then we plead guilty to the charge. Our offence hath this extent, no more. We never uttered a syllable in favor of Vance's claims until he was fairly nominated by the party. Then it became our duty to support him, and we have done so firmly but without any desire to give any cause of complaint to those Conservative members of the Legislature who have voted against the nominee of their party. While most of our exchanges have denounced them, in some instances in a very harsh manner, we have uttered no word in anger or reproach, and the uncalled for language of the Senator from Jackson shall not drive us into passion or ill-temper.

So far as the want of nerve of the NEWS is concerned, the Senator from Jackson will find that our paper will not be wanting in boldness and denunciation when the time and the circumstances demand it—when the interests of the party and our own judgment and feelings prompt us to such a course.—We do not propose to indulge in personalities and vituperation through our columns. Such a course is not only distasteful to ourselves but nauseating to the public also.

If the Senator from Jackson knows any stockholder in our "concern," he is in possession of information unknown to either of the proprietors of the NEWS, who were under the impression, until otherwise informed by that gentleman, that their's was an individual enterprise, and that they alone control and own it.

EXTRACTS FROM PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE.

We surrender most of our editorial space to the following extracts from the President's Message:

THE GENEVA ARBITRATION.

When Congress adjourned in June last, a question had been raised by Great Britain, and was then pending, which, for a time, seriously imperilled the settlement by friendly arbitration of the grave differences between this government and that of Her British Majesty, which, by the treaty of Washington, had been referred to the Tribunal of Arbitration which had met at Geneva, in Switzerland. The arbitrators, however, disposed of the question, which had jeopardized the whole of the treaty, and threatened to involve the two nations in most unhappy relations toward each other, in a manner entirely satisfactory to this government, and in accordance with the views of the policy which it had maintained. The Tribunal which had convened at Geneva in December concluded its laborious session on the 14th day of September last, on which day, having availed itself of the discretionary power given to it by the treaty to award a sum in gross, it made its decision, whereby it awarded the sum of $15,000,000 in gold as the indemnity to be paid by Great Britain to the United States for the satisfaction of all the claims referred to its consideration. This decision happily disposes of a long standing difference between the two governments, and in connection with another award made by the German Emperor, under a reference to him by the same treaty, leaves these two governments without a shadow upon the friendly relations, which it is my sincere hope may forever remain equally unclouded.

After a patient investigation of the case and of the statements of each party, His Majesty the Emperor, on the 21st day of October last, signed award in writing, decreeing that the

to the boundary line between the territories of her Britanic Majesty and the United States should be drawn through the Haro channel is most in accordance with the true interpretation of the treaty concluded on the 15th of June, 1846, between the governments of her Britantic Majesty and of the United States. Copies of the "case" presented on behalf of each government and of the

of each, and a translation of the award, are transmitted herewith. This award confirms the United States in their claim to the important Archipelago of islands lying between the continent and Vancouver's Island, which for more than twenty-six years (ever since the ratification of the treaty) Great Britain has contested, and leaves us, for the first time in the history of the United States as a nation, without a question of disputed boundary between our territory and the possessions of Great Britain on this continent.

It is my grateful duty to acknowledge the prompt, spontaneous action of Her Majesty's government in giving effect to the award. In anticipation of any request from this government and before the reception in the United States of the award, signed by the Emperor, Her Majesty had given instructions for the removal of her troops which had been stationed there, and for the cessation of all exercise or claim of jurisdiction, so as to leave the United States in the exclusive possession of the lately disputed territory.

FRIENDLY TERMS WITH OTHER NATIONS

With France, our earliest ally; Russia, the constant and steady friend of the United States; Germany, with whose government and people we have so many causes of friendship and so many common sympathies, and the other powers of Europe, our relations are maintained on the most friendly terms.

NATURALIZATION.

Since my last annual message the exchange has been made of the ratifications of a treaty with the Austro Hungarian Empire in relation to naturalization, also of a treaty with the German Empire respecting consuls and trade marks, also of a treaty with Sweeden and Norway relating to naturalization—all of which treaties have been duly proclaimed.

Congress, at its last session, having made an appropriation to defray the expense of commissioners on the part of the United States to the

at St. Petersburg, the persons appointed in that character proceeded to their destination and attended the sessions of the Congress. Their report shall in due season be laid before you. This Congress meets at intervals of about three years, and has held its session in several of the countries of Europe. I submit to your consideration the propriety of extending an invitation to the Congress to hold its next meeting in the United States. The centennial celebration to be held in 1876 would afford an appropriate occasion for such meeting. Preparations are making for the

to be held during the next year in Vienna, on a scale of very great magnitude. The tendency of these expositions is in the direction of advanced civilization, and of the elevation of industry and of labor, and of the increase of human happiness, as well as of greater intercourse and good will between nations.

As the exposition is to be the first which will have been held in Eastern Europe it is believed that American inventors and manufacturers will be ready to avail themselves of the opportunity for the presentation of their productions if encouraged by proper aid and protection.

MEXICO.

Since the last session the President of the Mexican republic, distinguished by his high character and by his services to his country, has died. His temporary successor has now been elected with great unanimity by the people—a proof of confidence on their part in his patriotism and wisdom—which, it is believed, will be confirmed by the results of his administration. It is particularly desirable that nothing should be left undone by the government of either republic to strengthen their relations as neighbors and friends. It is much to be regretted that many lawless acts continue to disturb the quiet of the settlements on the border between our territory and that of Mexico, and that complaints of wrongs to American citizens in various parts of the country are made. The revolutionary condition in which the neighboring republic has so long been involved has, in some degree, contributed to this disturbance. It is to be hoped that with a more settled rule of order through the republic, which may be expected from the present government, the acts of which just complaints are made will cease.

The proceedings of the commission under the convention with Mexico of the 4th of July, 1868, on the subject of claims have unfortunately been checked by an obstacle, for the removal of which measures have been taken by the two governments, which, it is believed, will prove successful.

CUBA.

It is with regret that I have again to announce a continuance of the disturbed condition of the Island of Cuba. No advance toward the pacification of the discontented part of the population has been made. While the insurrection has gained no advantages and exhibits no more of the elements of power or of the prospects of ultimate success than were exhibited a year ago, Spain, on the other hand, has not succeeded in its repression, and the parties stand apparently in the same relative attitude which they have occupied for a long time past.

This contest has lasted now for more than four years. Were it seen at a distance from our neighborhood we might be indifferent to the result, although humanity could not be unmoved by many of its incidents wherever they might occur. It is, however, at our door. I cannot doubt that the continued maintenance of slavery in Cuba is amond the strongest inducements to the continuance of this strife. A terrible wrong is the natural cause of a terrible evil. The abolition of slavery and the introduction of other reforms in the administration of government in Cuba, could not fail to advance the restoration of peace and order.

With the States as with the republics of

we continue to maintain the most friendly relations.

It is with regret, however, I announce that the government of Venezuela has made no further payments on account of the awards under the Convention of the 1st of April, 1866. The latter Republic is understood to be now almost if not quite tranquilized. It is hoped, therefore, that it will lose no time in providing for the unpaid balance of its debt to the United States, which, having originated in injuries to our citizens by Venezuelan authorities, and having been acknowledged pursuant to a treaty of the most solemn form known among nations, would seem to deserve a preference over debts of a different manner. This subject is again recommended to the attention of Congress as may be deemed proper.

JAPAN AND CHINA.

Our treaty relations with Japan remain unchanged. An imposing embassy from that interesting and progressive nation visited this country during the year that is passing, but being unprovided with powers for the signing of a convention in this country no conclusion in that direction was reached. It is hoped, however, that the interchange of opinions which took place during their stay in this country has led to a mutual appreciation of the interests which may be promoted when the revision of the existing treaty shall be undertaken. In this connection I renew my recommendation of one year ago, that to give importance and to add to the efficiency of our diplomatic relations with Japan and China, and to further aid in retaining the good opinion of those peoples and to secure to the United States a share of the commerce destined to follow between those nations and the balance of the commercial world, an appropriation be made to support at least four American youths in each of those countries, to serve as part of the official family of our ministers there. Our representatives would not even then be placed upon an equality with the representatives of Great Britain and of some other powers. As now situated, our representatives in Japan and China have to depend for interpreters and translators upon natives of those countries who know our language imperfectly, or procure for the occasion the services of employees in foreign business houses or the interpreters to other foreign ministers.

THE TREASURY.

The moneys received and conveyed into the Treasury during the fiscal year ending June 30th, 1872, were from customs, $216,370,286.77; from sales of public lands, $2 575 714 19; from internal revenue, $130,642,177 72; from tax on national bank circulation, &c, 96,-523 396 39; from Pacific Railway Company, $749,861 87; from customs, fines, &c., $1,136,442 34; from fees, consular, patent, land, &c., $2,284 095 92; from miscellaneous sources, $4,441,-254 74. Total ordinary receipts, $564,-694,229 91; from premium on sales of coin, $9,412 637.65. Total net receipts, $374,106,867 56. Balance in Treasury June 30th, 1871, $109,935,705.59, including $18,228 35 received from unavailables. Total available cash, $484,042,573 15. The net expenditures by warrants during the same period were for civil expenses, $16,187,059 20; for foreign intercourse, $18,039,367.14; for Indians, $7,061,728 82; for pensions, $28,533,402.76; for military establishments, including fortifications, river and harbor improvements and arsenals, $35,372,157.20.

For naval establishment, including vessels and machinery and improvements at navy yards, $21,749,809 99; for miscellaneous including public buildings, light houses and collecting the revenue, $42,958,229 08; for interest on the public debt, $117,337,839 72; total exclusive of principal and premium on the public debt, $270,559,695 91; for premiums on bonds purchased, $6,958,-266.76; for redemption of the public debt, $99,960 253.54; total, $106,918,-520.30: total receipts and disbursements, $357,478,216 21; balance in treasury on June 30th, 1872, $106,564,-356.94; total, $484.042,573.15. From the foregoing statement it appears that the net reduction of the principal of the debt during the fiscal year, ended June 30th, 1872, was $999,602,535.45.

The source of this reduction is as follows: Net ordinary receipts during the year, $364,694,229 91; net ordinary expenditures, including interest on the public debt, $270,559,695.91. Leaving surplus revenue $94,134,534; add amount received from premium on sales of gold in excess of the premium paid on bonds purchased, $2,454,370.89; add the amount of the reduction of the cash balance at the close of the year, accompanied with the same at the close of the year, accompanied with same at the commencement of the year, $3,371,-248.85—total, $99.960,253.54. This statement treats solely of the principal of the public debt by the POST OFFICE DEPARTMENT.

The accompanying report of the Postmaster General furnishes a full and satisfactory exhibit of the operations of the post office department during the year. The ordinary revenues of the department for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1872, amounted to $21.916,-420 37, and the expenditures to $26,-558,192 31. Compared with the previous fiscal year the increase of revenue was $1,878,880,95, or 937 per cent. and the increase of expenses $2,268,088 29, or 929 per cent., adding to the ordinary revenues the annual appropriation of $700,000 for free matter and the amount paid to the subsidies of mail steamship lines for special appropriation, the deficiency paid out of the general treasury was $3.317,765.94, an excess of $389,-707.28 over the deficiency for the year 1871.

Other interesting statistical information relating to our rapidly extending postal service is furnished in this report. The total length of railroad mail routes on the 30th of June, 1872, was 57,911 miles—8,077 additional miles of such service having been put in operation during the year; eight new lines of railway post offices have been established, with an aggregate of 2,909 miles.—The number of letters exchanged in the mails with the foregoing counties was 21,362,500—increase of 4,066,562, or 20 per cent. over the number in 1871—and the postage thereon amounted to $1,-871,257.26. The total weight of the mails exchanged with European countries exceeded 820 tons. The cost of the United States trans-Atlantic mail steamship service was $202,301.70.—The total cost of the ocean steamers service, including the amounts paid to the subsidized lines of mail steamers, $1,027,020.97.

DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE.

Detailed statements of the disbursement through the Department of Justice will be furnished by the report of the Attorney-General, and though these have been somewhat increased by the recent acts of Congress to enforce the rights of citizens of the United States to vote in the several States of the Union, and to enforce the provisions of the fourteenth amendment to the Constitution of the United States and the amendments thereto, I cannot question the necessity and salutary effect of those enactments. Reckless and lawless men, I regret to say, have associated themselves together in some localities to deprive other citizens of those rights guaranteed to them by the Constitution of the United States, and to that end have committed deeds of blood and violence, but the prosecution and punishment of many of these persons have tended greatly to the repression of such disorders. I do not doubt that a great majority of the people in all parts of the country favor the full enjoyment by all classes of persons of those rights to which they are entitled under the constitution and laws and I invoke the aid and influence of all good citizens to prevent organizations whose objects are unlawful means to interfere with those rights.

I look with confidence to the time not far distant, when the obvious advantages of good order and peace will induce an abandonment of all combinations prohibited by the act referred to, and when it will be unnecessary to carry on prosecutions or inflict punishment to protect citizens from the lawless doings of such combinations. Applications have been made to me to pardon persons convicted of a violation of said acts upon the ground that clemency in such cases would tend to tranquilize the public mind, and to test the virtue of that policy I am disposed, as far as my sense of justice will permit, to give those applications a favorable consideration; but any action thereon is not to be construed as indicating any change in my determination to enforce with rigor such acts so long as the conspiracies and combinations therein named disturb the peace of the country. It is much to be regretted, and is regretted by no one more than myself, that a necessity has ever existed to execute the enforcement act. No one can desire more than I that the necessity of applying it may never again be demanded.

DIED:

CLARK—At Newbern, on the 16th ult., Mr. Joseph B. Clark, of Pantigo, Beaufort county.

STATE NEWS.

CHICKEN stealing is becoming a common occurrence in Wilmington.

CORN in Davie county is selling for 30cts per. bushel. Wheat $1.00 per bushel.

THE Wilmington Journal says a colored child of John Lunis was found dead in bed Monday morning.

WE learn from the Vindicator of the death of Mrs. Nancy Biggerstaff, of Rutherfordton, on last Wednesday.

THE Wilmington Star learns of the death of Dr. H. H. Robinson, in Bladen county, which took place a few days ago.

WE learn from a private letter from Smithgrove, Davie county, that there was a snow storm there on the first of this month.

THE Wilmington Star says St. John's Lodge No. 1, F. and A. M., of that city, is making preparations for a good time on St. John's Day.

THE Wilmington Star has received a pamphlet containing annual announcement of lectures of the University of New York Medical Department. Says the Star: "Dr. S. S. Satchwell, of this county, who appears in the list of Vice Presidents of the Alumni Association of the institution for 1872, is also announced as Orator, which is not only a compliment worthily bestowed, but one which our State and particularly New Hanover county, should look upon with no little gratification and pride.

[COMMUNICATED]

Messrs. Editors of the News:

Among the numerous contemptible inventions circulated against Gov Vance during his recent candidature for the United States Senate, is or was one so disagreeably and falsely reflecting upon my humble self as to induce me to thus publicly denounce it as a lie.

The charge that I came to Raleigh to serve Gov. Vance and assist in his election is wholly untrue, though certainly not necessarily discrediting. My business here was and is altogether disconnected with Gov. Vance, his interests or aspirations; but being here, and being his warmly attached kinsman, I had, indeed, sought by every fair and honorable means, within my poor ability, to promote his election, and so far I have no disclaimer to make.

It is only as against the imputation that I came here at his instance to serve him as a sort of spy upon his chief rival, that I desire to denounce the charge and the authors of it.

The only design was to injure Gov. Vance, but the only effect, if any, is to stigmatize me in a strange community.

Having no definite idea to whom I am so obliged, I can only in this way invite them, with all my heart, to a more private, more personal, and infinitely more emphatic denunciation.

Respectfully,
J. D. VANCE.

The N. C. Methodist Protestant Conference.

GREENSBORO, Nov. 30, 1872.

5TH DAY.

The pulpits were filled yesterday by Revs. R. H. Wills, T. J. Ogburn, T. H. Pegram, J. R. Ball. T. J. Ogburn, was ordained Elder, and W. G. Hamilton Deacon.

The report of the Committee on education was considered and adopted—in which they recommend Yadkin College to the patronage of the Church; and the purchase of two scholarships in the Western Maryland College.

The Missionary Society met again today, and was addressed by the Rev. T. H. Pegram. This Society is in a more prosperous condition than it has been for years. Among the contributions today, was one from a lady visitor of Halifax circuit, of sixty dollars.

Resolutions were passed looking to publishing of a Church paper, to be under the patronage of the Conference. The Superintendents of Circuits were requested to see what number of subscribers they could obtain on the different fields of labor.

The Conference will probably adjourn to morrow. G.

Colored Emigrants for Liberia.

A company of one hundred and fifty colored persons, interesting on account of their somewhat venturesome undertaking as well as the possibilities that are theirs, landed at the New York dock on Wednesday, from Georgia, en route for Liberia, the negro republic of Africa. This little colony, which has numerically improved upon that of the May flower by forty-nine, will take passage on the bark Jasper, which has been fitted up with special reference to the voyage, and is promised to present throughout manifest improvement upon the usual run of emigrant ships both in comfort and cleanliness The colonists are a selection from over 3,000 applicants for the passage, and come from various parts of Georgia, being nearly all in families. They are well educated in a common way, and are brought up according to the teachings of the Methodist and Baptist denominations in so good a fashion that the mate of the steamship which brought them thus far on their journey declared that their prayer meetings and jollifications were highly edifying. The passage is expected to occupy from thirty five to forty days. Sixty of the emigrants will land at Monrovia, which is the capital of their new republic, and the others will sail further on to Cape Palmas. This is only the advance guard of more than 3,000 colored people in Georgia who wish to go to Africa and build up a State founded upon the enterprise and devotion of the Southern freedmen. President Roberts, of Liberia, has written them, giving ample testimony to the rapid advancement of agriculture and commerce since the foundation of the republic. Each family upon landing receives twenty five acres of land free, and each man citizenship.

This is strictly a
HOME LIFE COMPANY.
Its Officers and Directors are citizens of the State, of high character for business capacity, enterprise and probity. It offers every SUBSTANTIAL BENEFIT
that Northern Companies do, with the great additional consideration that the capital is kept within the state, and, therefore, helps to build up and foster Home Institutions.
Another important fact to be considered is, that the Wilmington Life has thus far obtained A VERY MUCH LARGER INTEREST for the money invested at home, than any of the New York Companies receive for their investments, according to their sworn statements before the Commissioner of that State.
These unquestionable facts should commend this Company, above all others, to our people. Let it be born in mind that millions of dollars received for Life premiums have been sent North since the war, which at once drains the South and enriches the plethoric capitalists of the North. If there was no other consideration, safety, fairness and cheapness being equal, why North Carolinians should INSURE AT HOME. this were more than sufficient.
THE WILMINGTON LIFE
has excellent special features.
It places no restriction on Residence or Travel; it makes no extra charge for Female risks; and its Policies are incontestable after Five Years.
Its business is managed economically. Its risks are taken with equal caution. Its investments are made judiciously.
Its motto is:
"ECONOMY, PROMPTNESS, FAIRNESS."

NOON DISPATCHES.

Congressional Proceedings—Washington Affairs.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 4—The Senate elected Anthony President pro tem., and adjourned.

The House is considering Washington affairs.

The Commissioner of the Internal Revenue, Mr. Douglas, with the Ex-Commissioner, Mr. Rollins, Supervisors Fulton, Totten and others appeared this morning before the Ways and Means Committee, warmly pressing the new bill of the Commissioner for the abolition of the whole system of assessors and assistant assessors, and imposing the duties of these officers on the collectors and deputy collectors. The Secretary of the Treasury, Mr. Boutwell, was also present on the same business. The indications are that the bill in substance will be reported by the Committee, and will be passed by the House

Efforts are likely to be renewed to unseat the three Liberal Republican Chairmen of the House Committees—Banks, Blair and Farnsworth. Both Republican organs of this city to day express dissatisfaction with the continuance of these gentlemen in their official positions as chairmen of committees.

The Republican attributes the vote of the House last Monday against accepting the resignation of Banks to the argument of Mr. James Brooks, and censures the Republican members for following their counsel. There is a warm feeling on the subject, because the action of the House is regarded an implied censure on the Senate in the cases of Trumbull, Sumner and others It is probable that Trumbull, Fenton and Rice will lose chairmanship of their respective committees.

General Intelligence.

The Secretary of the New York Jockey Club denies the prevalence of the epizooty with the racers. The races will be resumed.

The New York "Times" characterizes the President's message as a sensible, unpretending, lucid and business-like document, free from sectional or political bitterness.

A transfer of the franchise of the Gila Railroad to the Texas Pacific Railroad was consummated yesterday.

The Greeley Obsequies.

NEW YORK, Dec. 4—The weather is clear and cold. Large numbers have arrived. Many representatives of the press from various parts of the country have arrived to participate in the obsequies.

The Herald proposes a press fund for the benefit of the Greeley children, $25 from Jailies and $10 from weeklies. The Herald heads the list with $1,000

MIDNIGHT DISPATCHES.

Greeley's Obsequies.

NEW YORK, Dec. 4.-The interior of the Church of the divine paternity presented to-day a sombre and beautiful appearance, and the pulpit was heavily draped in crape, and long lines of crape were suspended from every pillar, and every butment of the beautiful gothic interior. The several offerings in the Church were exquisite in design and appropriateness. The principal among them were the following:

"I know that my Redeemer liveth," red and white ground and green body; at the rear of the pulpit was a sheaf of wheat from Chapaqua, in the form of a crown, and suspended overhead a pen and axe. Around the pulpit were innumerable offerings of flowers and wreaths. In front of the pulpit was a beautiful design in flowers, with the words in centre, "It is done', on white ground purple letters and a green border on a tablet. To the left of the pulpit was a floral weath, bearing letters, H G. There were in flowers, a plough from the "Tribune" office, a quilt from the German Greeley Club, a basket of flowers, with a crown and a cross from the Lincoln Club, and a floral offering from Lotus, Arcadian, "Herald" and other Clubs.

As early as 9 o'clock crowds flocked to the church, but only those having tickets succeeded in gaining admission. By 10 o'clock the galleries, which had been reserved for ladies, were crowded. About a quarter before 11 President Grant entered, and immediately following him were Senator Henry Wilson, Minister Washburne and Secretary of War, Belknap. They took seats on the right of the pulpit.

There were also present Carl Schurz, Lyman Tremaine and Vice President Colfax. Mr. Colfax took a seat near the President.

Promptly at 11 o'clock the funeral procession started from Mr. Sinclair's house in 45th street. Many affecting scenes took place during the morning; Mr. Greeley's daughters were inconsolable in their grief.

The corpse was borne by 10 men. Next came clergy and mourners, and then the Tribune Association, next Herald club, then followed in succession the military and civic officers of the U. S. located in this and adjoining cities, officers of the government of the State of New York, and of the other States now in this city, the mayor and members of the common council, the mayor, and members of the common council of Brooklyn, Jersey City, Long Island City, Newark and Elizabeth, representatives from Philadelphia, Baltimore and other cities, then came judges from all the courts, and a line of citizens of immense length.

At 11.20 the procession entered the church, and the solemnity of the scene was of the most impressive character, the stillness was such that it seemed as though the people in the church scarcely breathed.

Among those present were Post Master General Creswell, General Dix, Gov. Morgan, Gen. Sheridan, Gov. Randolph, of New Jersey, and a committee of twenty from the Union League Club.

Rev. Dr. Chapin opened the funeral ceremonies, by reading selections from the Scriptures, many of the allusions being peculiarly appropriate to the character of the departed.

Miss Clara Louise Kellogg next sang, very touchingly, "I know that my Redeemer liveth," after which the Rev Henry Ward Beecher delivered the funeral oration. He said no one dies whose death is not the most momentous of all who have passed away; not one has gone for a long time who will carry with him so much honor, so much reverence, so much devotion. Who is this man who gets all these honors? Who is this man? Was he one of those great princes of wealth? Was he one of great military renown? No! And yet here are men from every walk in life here.—Is our Chief Magistrates here? Are the most prominent citizens from all parts of the country gathered around the bier of this man who is now no more. Here we see that criticism is disarmed.

A little time ago and men's political passions were aroused, and we differ as much on politics as ever, but here lies before us this man, who but a brief time ago, was a great leader in our land, and why do men of all politics gather here in reverence around his remains.

It is because the man is greater than his politics Here to-day, between the two oceans there is scarcely a man or child who has not felt a beneficent influence of the character of Horace Greeley. Horace Greeley gave the strength of his life to the education of humanity, and especially to the poor who could little help themselves. He had a great heart that longed for sympathy, though he may not be remembered by those memorials which carry other men's names down. He will be remembered throughout this land for those great qualities of mind and heart which made his character commensurate, as it were, with the genius of this great republic. His influence has gone out to teach a nobler manhood to the mechanic, the laborer and the farmer. What more can we say in eulogy of the character of this illustrious dead? Alas! alas! he, through a long and not intemperatuous voyage, has reached the shore. How blessed are the dead that die in the Lord. May God grant that in solemnity of these thoughts in which we have gathered here, it may be our happy lot that when we die, Angels shall open the gates and receive us into the Glory of the Lord.

After an ode by Quintette, from St. Francis Xavier's Church, was sung, Dr. Chapin said: To day in freshness of his power, Horace Greeley is laid by the side of his beloved wife. As a pastor and a personal friend, I cannot now here attempt to depict the worth and greatness of the departed journalist.

Horace Greeley's name is written in homes, and throughout the length and breadth of this land, who are now of all party and religious differences. I ask you to consider here what it is that has brought forth so much love for this man? It was not his official position, for he held none; it was not even his unquestionable genius. It was attraction of pure and simple goodness. The hundreds of toi worn men who yesterday waited for hours to look upon the face of the dead were not drawn there by any mere curiosity, they went to look at the features of one who had been their consistent and untiring friend.

Horace Greeley struck for what he believed to be right until mind and heart gave way. He lies dead upon the field. Let me remind you that Horace Greeley's life was remarkably practical one—no man it seems to me was more given to practical purposes than he—how many lives has he stimulated to wholesome energy, how many great interests of education, and science, and progress mourn him now. All these tributes to day testify to the recognition of the virtues of this great and good man, the President of the nation joining in this tribute to the patriot and the man. (Murmurs of applause)

Let me take occasion to urge Mr. Greeley's views of christianity. He lived on the essential truths of christianity, he laid on them his weary head and weary heart, and died weary with the turmoil of life. Does not the truth come to us, "I know that my Redeemer liveth." In Horace Greeley I recognize a proof of immortaility. He looked from the troubles of the surging world to the peace of the grave, where the wicked cease from troubling and the weary are at rest.

I thank God from my heart and soul, that when all this world was fading from his eyes he remembered, "I know that my Redeemer liveth." It was the triumph of his life and of his death, and now, as we take our brother from this church which has known him so often, but will know him no more, let this be our lesson, "we know that our Redeemer liveth." Farewell noble associate, farewell great champion, "we know that our Redeemer liveth," and God grant that, like thee, we may know it when the light of this world is fading from our eyes."

Services closed at 1:15, but the procession did not move till nearly two o'clock.
